SIXTY-FIFTH DAY (Tuesday, May 1, 1973)

The Senate met at 10:30 o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the President Pro Tempore.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Adams, Aikin, Andujar, Blanchard, Braecklein, Brooks, Clower, Creighton, Gammage, Harrington, Harris, Herring, Hightower, Jones, Kothmann, Longoria, Mauzy, McKinnon, McKnight, Meier, Mengden, Moore, Ogg, Patman, Santiesteban, Schwartz, Sherman, Snelson, Traeger, Wallace and Wolff.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Walter Allen, Associate Pastor, Central Christian Church, Austin, offered the invocation as follows:

Almighty God, amid both the perplexities and the challenges of being a part of the governing process of such a complex society as this state, with its great size and variety, we seek your guidance for the members of this legislative body. Grant that as they set themselves again to the tasks of the day, that they may maintain an over-view of how what they do today will ultimately become a thread in the fabric of the quality of life in this state, either making it better or inferior. Grant to each Senator a sense of priorities centering on the human needs of all the people of this state. Priorities which will more nearly assure the reality of equal opportunities for each citizen to share in the social, economic and political processes and their fruits. We pray that each Senator may have a deep sense of responsibility about his office, and that each might have courage and foresight and wisdom to deliberate the issues and then to vote and act with his best judgment. We give thanks for all persons who accept and dedicate themselves to challenges of modern government and to making it work. In your name we pray. Amen.

On motion of Senator Aikin and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.
